

TOP FIVE GALLERIES

Rachel Campbell-Johnston

1 MAX KLINGER

Five sets of etchings by the 19th century artist weave scenes of everyday life together with flights of fantasy and dark imaginings which intrigue and enchant. Ikon Gallery, Brook Street, Birmingham (www.ikon-gallery.co.uk 0121-248 0708), Tue-Sat

2 PERIPHERAL VISIONS

Four Russian artists, Viktor Alimpiev, Olga Chernysheva, Philipp Dontsov and Maxim Iliukhin, explore the social and political relationships which bind the individual into society. Chapter Arts Centre, Market Road, Cardiff (www.chapter.org 029-2030 4400), Mon-Sun

3 DAY-TO-DAY DATA

Abigail Reynolds, Christian Nold, Ellie

Harrison, Hannah Brown, Helen Frosi and Lucy Kimbell, investigate aspects of daily life and the ordinary things that we do it, to seek out new insights into the ways in which we live. Angel Row Gallery, Angel Row, Nottingham (0115-915 2869), Mon-Sat

4 UNIVERSALISM AT STAKE: DIALOGUES WITH SENHOR

The results of 12 residencies, undertaken by artists in Senegal, focusing on the theme of universalism. Spacex Gallery, Preston Street, Exeter (01392 431786), Tue-Sat

5 VERTIGO

Installed in the stunning setting of this historic castle, a show of newly commissioned and recent work by leading contemporary artists, including Damien Hirst, Mariele Neudecker and Franz West, explore the ways in which changes of scale and perspective can lead to giddy new perceptions. Sudeley Castle, Winchcombe, Cheltenham (www.sudeleycastle.co.uk 01242 602308), Mon-Sun
For more galleries, go to www.timesonline.co.uk/theknowledge/art