

Ellie Harrison
Transactions

During the exhibition, Ellie Harrison sends an SMS to the mobile phone in the gallery every time she makes a financial transaction (large or small). The phone's alert triggers the dancing Coke can.

Ellie Harrison
The History of Financial Crises

The period of time the gallery is open each day is used to represent the last century. The popcorn machines are activated one-by-one at times corresponding to their dates within the century.

1929: Wall Street Crash - - - - -

1937: US Recession - - - - -

1973: UK Stock Market Crash - - - - -

1987: Black Monday - - - - -

1990: Japanese Asset Price Bubble - - - - -

1992: UK Black Wednesday - - - - -

1997: Asian Financial Crisis - - - - -

1998: Russian Financial Crisis - - - - -

2000: Dot-Com Bubble - - - - -

2007: The Chinese Correction - - - - -

2008: Global Credit Crisis - - - - -

